

Queen Mary University of London PhD Induction

January 2025

Queen Mary
University of London

QUEST

Queen Mary Entrepreneurship
Support and Training

“We want our staff and students to be entrepreneurial, and we will support them to realise their ambitions and dreams. We will embrace a culture of creativity and innovation and support our staff and students to take risks, within a managed framework. We will build resilience with our communities to understand that sometimes ideas and projects will fail, and it is how we deal with and move on from failure that sets us apart.”

Strategy 2030

Entrepreneurship is. . .

opportunities & ideas

value

BARTS LIFE SCIENCES
DISCOVERY / DIVERSITY / DELIVERY

QIncubator

London Institute for Healthcare Engineering

Queen Mary
University of London

QUEST

quest@qmul.ac.uk

Intellectual Property (IP)

Ben Golland
Senior Commercialisation Manager
QMI

What is IP?

IP is intangible property – ideas and knowledge – that arises from creativity.

Why is IP important?

- Impact and value to the market
- Impact to Queen Mary via REF
 - *any effect on, change or benefit to the economy, society, culture, public policy or services, health, the environment or quality of life, beyond academia
- Reputation to Queen Mary
- Return to inventors and Queen Mary

How is IP utilised?

- Licensed to established companies for a fee and royalties collected
- Used to back spin-out companies from QMUL

What is IP?

IP	Covers	Need to apply?	Duration
Patent	Inventions	Yes	20 years
Copyright	Literary, musical, artistic works, & software	No	70 years after death
Know-how	Confidential trade secret	No	Unlimited
Design Rights	Image, look & feel	Yes	25 years
Trademark	Name, logo	Yes	Unlimited
Database Right	Databases	No	15 years

Who owns IP?

- Generally, Queen Mary owns employee inventions
- Student inventions made using significant Queen Mary resources or Queen Mary funds are owned by Queen Mary
- Exceptions when created in connection with an external funding body
- Revenue sharing policy in place between Queen Mary and inventors

Do's & Don'ts

- Keep good records
- Keep it confidential initially
- Contact QMI
- Complete a Technology Disclosure Form
 - IP protection will be sought based on QMI assessment of commercial potential
- Don't disclose details of your results (seminars, conference abstracts and posters etc) before contacting QMI

Ben Golland
Senior Commercialisation Manager

QMI

Email: b.golland@qmul.ac.uk

