

HOME & THE CITY:

celebrating life on the

KINGSLAND ROAD

The Geffrye Museum of the Home and the Centre for Studies of Home invites you to a day of...

WORKSHOPS

'Reminiscence' workshop

What is your favourite dish and which is your favourite take-away? Explore how food connects your home with Kingsland Road.

'Home and hospitality'

How do you welcome people into your home? Step inside a pop-up living room and share your stories of hospitality.

'Settlements' workshop

Recreate real & imaginary places with natural materials and build up a map of the local area.

3.30pm Globe Making workshop

Create your own globe to explore home and belonging.

Drop-in workshop: places are limited to 25, first-come first served.

ART AND ARCHIVES

Globe sculpture and film

Artist, Janetka Platun, has rolled her sculpture, 'Globe', a copper sphere around East London.

2pm Try rolling 'Globe' around the Geffrye yourself.

3 & 4pm Watch the 30 min film 'Here be Dragons', documenting the journey 'Globe' has rolled through East London.

Mapping the Kingsland Road

A small display of maps and materials will explore the history of life along the Kingsland Road.

25 FEBRUARY 2-4.30PM

Geffrye Museum of the Home
136 Kingsland Road, E2 8AE

STREET PARTY

The Geffrye will host an indoor Street Party with refreshments on and music playing from 2-4pm.

The Street Party is hosted by the Centre for Studies of Home, a collaboration between the Geffrye Museum and Queen Mary University of London, and funded by the Queen Mary Centre for Public Engagement.
