

The Economics of a Networked Society

Sanjeev Goyal

University of Cambridge

Wednesday 21st October, 3pm, The Octagon

Queen Mary University of London

Sanjeev is Professor of Economics at the University of Cambridge, where he was founding Director of the Cambridge-INET Institute, and currently is Chair of the Faculty of Economics. Sanjeev is a pioneer and leading international scholar in the study of social and economic networks. His book, `Connections: an introduction to the economics of networks`, was published in 2007 by Princeton University Press and a Chinese translation was published by Peking University Press in 2010. Sanjeev was made a fellow of the British Academy in 2015.

Refreshments and a book signing by Sanjeev Goyal will follow the lecture

